

If you make the mistake of purchasing the WRONG version of the Ravenstonedale Parish Registers online, you could end up with a version with the pages looking like the example on the right below, with the dates no longer attached to the names of the individuals:

This is what a page in a publication which is a true copy of the original version looks like: [with the name of the couple marrying next to the DATE of the marriage]
